'Pray for the People of Orlando'

Bishop Brendan Leahy of Limerick has appealed to the public to keep the people of Orlando in their prayers as he offered support to Bishop John Gerard Noonan of Orlando, who is a Limerick native.

On Tuesday, Bishop Leahy described the attack in Orlando as “beyond words” following the savage killing of 49 innocent people “so mercilessly”. “It reminds us yet again of the dreadful intent of terrorists,” Dr Leahy said. Noting that Bishop Noonan is originally from Corbally in Limerick city, Bishop Leahy said the Florida bishop had captured the sense of shock and hurt that Orlando has experienced when he said “a sword has pierced the heart of our city”.

“He has asked for prayers for the victims, the families and first responders as well as for victims of violence and acts of terror; for their families and friends and all those affected by such acts against God’s love and I know that we will all keep them in our prayers and thoughts this week.”

“We pray for the people of the city of Orlando that God’s mercy and love will be upon us as we seek healing and consolation.”

A Prayer Vigil for victims of the Orlando Massacre and their families was held in St Mary’s Cathedral, Limerick, last Wednesday 15th June. There was also a vigil organised by Limerick LGBT pride in Arthurs Quay the same evening. An online book of condolences has been opened by Limerick city and county council where you can add your name and a short note.

Remembering

God of hope, for all those people whom we are remembering at this time,
give them hope, direction and courage.

May they continue to treasure precious memories and move beyond the difficult ones.

Walk with them in their dark moments of grief and loneliness.
May they draw strength from the flickering candles of faith.

Restore their trust in the care of God and the hope of the Risen Christ.

Happy Father's Day

Dominican Sisters come to Limerick

Bishop Brendan Leahy has invited four Dominican Sisters of St Cecilia from Nashville, Tennessee, to take over the Dominican Priory and to establish a mission to serve in the Diocese of Limerick, Ireland, beginning in August of 2016.

Dominicans have served in the diocese for almost 800 years, with the first Dominican foundation being made there in 1227, not long after the Order began. The sisters will be serving the Dominican church St Saviour's which was given to the Dominicans in 1815 and which has been blessed by the presence of the Irish Dominican friars.

Four sisters will join us in Limerick in August 2016. Their first apostolate will be to give witness to the joy of consecrated life, serving in areas which will be of benefit to the diocese. The sisters look forward to getting to know the people of Limerick and how they can best serve the Church in Ireland in accord with the Dominican charism and the spirit of the New Evangelization.

Godly Play Workshop

At our recent Synod many requested more creative resources for children's catechesis, for family liturgy and for scripture sharing. Here is a very special way of working that offers children a chance to hear and reflect on Sunday scripture in a gentle, creative and positive manner. One of the leaders of Godly Play Ireland is our own Jessie Rogers.

Godly Play teaches children the art of using Christian language - parable, sacred story, silence and liturgical action – to help them understand the mystery of God's presence in their lives.

This year's Godly Play Core Training is being offered as part of the Religious Education Summer School at St Patrick's College, Drumcondra. It is open to all, not just to teachers. If you are a teacher, it is DES approved for 3 EPV days. This arrangement means that we are able to offer it at a lower cost than normal - only € 99. Booking is directly with the RE Summer School.
