Mary Queen of the May

MARY'S MONTH.

The following poem may help you to enter into the spirit of Mary's month,
a month of memories.

Glory in the whitethorn, nature's wedding veil.
Parable in the cherry tree, fragile short-lived beauty.
Memories of May altars and bluebells in jam jars.
Virgin crowned with daisy chains.
Processions in convent gardens.
Children of Mary in blue and white veils.
Rose petals on the path.
Dogmas and doctrines chilling the heart.
Endless scandals plundering innocence,
breaking threads of trust.
Flaming furze. Burning bush.
Holy ground.
A pondering heart. Faith restored.
Angelus in a meadow.
Annunciations in buttercups
Visitations in cowslips
Electronic lights. Wonder in the eyes.
Flowers of the rarest.
Quiet light. Mary's month.

Darkness into Light

With close to 110,000 participants last year, how could it get any bigger? But it has, and now Darkness Into Light is celebrated in excess of 110 venues in Ireland and much further afield. In addition, we are thrilled to once again have our sponsor Electric Ireland, the leading energy supplier in the country on board to this year's event is the best yet.

But ultimately, think about how Darkness Into Light is the flagship fundraising and awareness event for Pieta House, and without your support, we could not have helped so many people in suicidal distress and engaging in self-harm over the last nine years.

Pieta House has nearly 180 staff and we've welcomed in excess of 22,000 people struggling in the shadows into our nine centres up and down the country since we first opened our doors a decade ago. www.dilpieta.ie Office open in Patrick St. Limerick from 10am – 4pm to register (also available on line). Contact Kieran O'Brien 061 484448. The Limerick Darkness into Light 5km Walk/Run starts Saturday May 7th at 4.15am at Thomond Park.

The Miracle of Yourself

Take a flower petal and hold it in the palm of your hand and celebrate the beauty and goodness of God's creation, and the miracle of yourself and the preciousness of your life.

Honour the memory of your loved one.

Let the flower petal drop into the water.

In so far as you can, let go of the questions,
the anger, the guilt and the pain.

Find wellsprings of strength, hope and healing in a place within you which is deeper than these feelings. Call up the power of God and spiritual resources to cope with the grief, when that sense of loss surfaces in you.

Draw on the positive memories of your loved one.

Finish with a prayer of thanksgiving for the good times with them.

Amen
