Remembrance Mass For Road Traffic Victims

Sunday 20th November
at 11.15am

The third Sunday of November was declared some years ago by the United Nations as an 'International Remembrance Day' for Road Traffic Victims. It is now marked throughout the world. Here in Limerick this year we intend to celebrate this occasion. Fuller details will appear in this newsletter next week.

All are welcome!

Service of Remembrance

The University Maternity Hospital Limerick will hold its annual remembrance service at the Church of the Holy Rosary, Ennis Road, Limerick, on Sunday, November 13th at 3pm.

We invite parents who have experienced the death of their baby/pregnancy loss at any stage, together with their family, friends and hospital staff to this service. This service is organised by the Counselling Department and Midwifery staff at UMHL. And people are very welcome to stay after the service for a chat and a cup of tea. As some parents may be recently bereaved, we respectfully ask those hoping to attend the service not to bring babies or young children.

The service is an annual event which aims to acknowledge the pregnancies that were lost and the lives of babies who have died through ectopic pregnancy, miscarriage, stillbirth and neonatal death. We welcome parents and families whose babies may have died many years ago as well as those more recently bereaved.

Axel Foley Memorial Page

It would be remiss not to mention the tragedy that has engulfed Limerick and the mid west recently with the passing of Anthony Foley. A stalwart of St Munchin's, Shannon, Munster and the Irish rugby team, a family man, a community man, a friend and a hero: Axels death is a very personal loss for many. Anthony's son has invited us all to participate in a very special memorial to honour his father and to pray for our loved one.

Tony Foley (11) and his family have been overwhelmed by the support they have received since his dad Anthony 'Axel' Foley passed away. Tony has been busy thinking about his own tribute to his Dad and has asked that this page (Axel Foley Memorial page) be set up in his memory. He wants to use it to ask people, who want to show their support, to attend Mass on each of the next 8 Sundays to pray for people who have died and while there to offer a prayer for his Dad also.

The 8 Sundays start this Sunday, October 30th - his Dad's birthday. The Number 8 is, of course, a special number for Tony and his family but the 8 Sundays also bring us up to that special family time of year, Christmas. So, Tony has asked if you could, in his Dad's memory, invite 8 friends to go to Mass over the next 8 Sundays and at Mass light a candle for your loved ones or for Anthony.

If you are on Facebook: Like the Axel Foley Memorial page, tag 8 Facebook friends you would like to go to Mass over the next 8 Sundays and after that Mass light a candle for a loved one or, indeed, for Anthony. Already photos are being sent into the page, so please share and send in your photos each week.

Bishop Brendan Leahy has described as "moving and inspirational" the gesture by Tony, the 11 year-old son of Anthony Foley, in asking people to go to Mass and light candles over the next eight Sunday's for deceased loved ones. Endorsing this campaign by Tony Foley and his family, Bishop Leahy said 'it was a deeply touching and selfless gesture at a very tragic time for the Foley and Hogan families'.
