Mother of Good Counsel Triduum

Mary, the Mother of Jesus, under the title Mother of Good Counsel has a special place of honour among the Augustinians. The original painting entitled Mother of Good Counsel is in the Augustinian Church in Genazzano, Italy. This picture portrays Mary holding the child Jesus. Her veil is around Jesus' shoulders, and Mary, caring mother that she was, is giving some good counsel to her son. An ancient legend says that this fresco was miraculously transported to Genazzano from its former home in Albania. The fresco came to rest on a narrow ledge inside the then unfinished Genazzano church, according to this legend, and it remains in the same place today.

The Genazzano church became a popular place of pilgrimage. Numerous cures took place there. The Augustinian Friars were invited to minister to the spiritual needs of the pilgrims. They continue to serve there to this day.

Alzheimer's Prayer

Do not ask me to remember

Don't try to make me understand

Let me rest and know
you're with me

Kiss my cheek and hold my hand.

I'm confused beyond your concept

I'm sad and sick and lost
All I know is that

I need you

To be with me at all costs.

Do no lose your patience
with me,

Do not scold or curse or cry

I can't help the way
I'm acting

I can't be different though I try.

Just remember that I need you

The best of me is gone

Please don't fail to stand beside me

Love me till my life is gone.

Thought for Today

The image of the Good Shepherd is profoundly reassuring. We hear it today in John's gospel and elsewhere in the Bible. It evokes a tremendous feeling of being cared for—the consolation of faith. Even in these difficult days, we need such reassurance. At the same time, the metaphor is used in a dissonant way: no regular shepherd, however caring, gives his life for his sheep! Cosy familiarity can dull the sense of shock: what is going on here? The gentle pastoral language suddenly gives way to sacrifice, as the shepherd becomes the lamb of God.

Prayer

Jesus our shepherd, we know your care for us was costly as you laid down your life and took it up again. Help us to know again "the great events that gave us new life" in you, that we may hear you and follow you in all we do.
