Curraghgowder Singers Return

We welcome to St. Augustine's next Sunday July 1st the Curraghgowder Singers with their musical director Mr. Timothy Schinnick. They are no strangers here as this will be their fifth year taking part at our 11.15am liturgy and giving a short concert afterwards.

The Curraghgowder Singers are the amalgamation and coming together of two community choirs, one from Limerick City and the other from Limerick county. As part of their busy schedule they will be singing in City Hall on the following Sunday 8th of July for The National Day of Commemoration Ceremony which will be the final performance before the summer holidays.

We wish them well and invite you to stay behind after Mass as this wonderful choir will give a short concert lifting their voices to fill this entire church with wonderful harmonious uplifting music and with a retiring collection going to NOVAS.

Aware : Call for Volunteers

Aware, Ireland's leading organisation providing support, education and information services for people impacted by depression, bipolar disorder and related mood conditions, is urgently seeking new volunteers. Aware relies on the passion and dedication of its volunteers to ensure that the organisation can continue to provide free support services nationwide, essential services that have a profound impact on individuals and families throughout Ireland. Aware is currently recruiting volunteers across four services – Support Line, Support Mail, Support & Self Care Groups and Life Skills Online. No prior qualifications or experience is required, as comprehensive training as well as ongoing support and education is provided by the organisation.

Fr. Bill Prendiville OSA 1930-2018

Sadly another of our community passed away last Sunday evening

Fr. Bill Prendiville OSA

He will be remembered for his love of the Scriptures and explanation of the readings before Mass.

Fr. Bill was from Castleisland Co. Kerry, a Geography teacher for many years in the Augustinian Colleges in New Ross & Dungarven. Many will have seen him at the funeral of Fr. Jerry Hickey who pre-deceased him by just 7 weeks. RIP.

Thought for Today

A birth is never "just" a birth. Each new life is always a gift and, at the same time, an affirmation, a sign of hope. Even in difficult circumstances, joy is the spontaneous response and with such joy comes a new sense of being more alive, more ourselves, more "graced", with a raised awareness of God-with-us. Parents wonder always "what will become of this child?" What holds for each of us was also true of John the Baptist, only all the more so, as we see in Luke's account. He was the last of the old and the first of the new, a prophet between the times — not unlike ourselves!

Prayer : As we continue to grow strong in spirit, Lord, help us to become the person whose real potential is known to you alone. May the hand of your blessing be upon us all, now and evermore.
