Augustinian Peace Morning

Some of you may recall last year's activity when we took to the busy streets of Limerick, giving people a candle and asking them to light it over Christmas to pray for peace. Those of us who feel otherwise helpless felt we needed to do something. Though it was little it was what we could do.

This year we will be distributing candles to shoppers from 9am to 12.30pm. Our morning's work will be followed by a short (about 20 minutes) Lay Lead Service in the church. Helpers will gather together afterwards in Nancy Blakes to enjoy some refreshments.

We need your help. If you have any time to spare between 9.00am and 12.30pm on Saturday 30th November we would be delighted to hear from you. Please contact Geraldine at 089 2410066.

Many people including large numbers of children are dying in Gaza and Lebanon as the war in the Middle East spreads. Ukraine is also in the midst of a violent struggle and the Sudanese people have become migrants as a result of conflict there. We have, since our last Peace Day witnessed violence in our own country.

Please don't feel you can do nothing
Join us and do what you can..

Thought for the day

Our expression "to have time for someone" is a heart-warming one, because giving time to someone is a real gift of myself, part of our consciousness of being human. The opposite—lack of time—is expressed in another idiom "Money rich but time poor." To be poor in time is a great deprivation, even when self-inflicted. It is all a question of perspective, values and choices. We do need to value the fleeting time we have and not live only towards a future, as yet unreal, moment. In the words of St Paul, Look, now is the acceptable time; look, now is the day of salvation! (2 Corinthians 6:2)

Prayer : Help me, eternal God, to accept your gift of the present moment. It is the only moment I will ever have, so let me inhabit it richly and fully, and celebrate your gift of life in abundance.
